

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

From 8am	Registration
SESSION 1:	PLENARY: THE FACES OF PAIN: ACUTE TO CHRONIC Chair: Professor Ted Shipton
8.45-9am	Welcome	1.30-2pm	The mental health of the profession. Dr Tony Davis
9-9.30am	Does chronic pain emerge from acute or were you born that way? Professor Irene Tracey	2-2.30pm	Personal reflections on the suicide of a colleague. Dr Robyn Campbell
9.30-10am	Role of "neurokine signalling" as the priming mechanism for persistent pain. Professor Mark Hutchinson	2.30-3pm	Suicide prevention and postvention. Dr Peter Herriot
10-10.30am	Genetics – Epigenetics – Who is more vulnerable? Professor Andrew Somogyi	3-3.30pm	Afternoon tea
10.30-11am	Morning tea	SESSION 4:	FACING THE DRAGON Chair: Dr Robyn Campbell
SESSION 2:	FACING THE ROAD Chair: Dr Gary Clothier	3.30-3.50pm	ePPOC: Evolving from pilot to National Chronic Pain Registry. Associate Professor Carolyn Arnold
11-11.30am	Opioid analgesics: The most dangerous drugs in the western pharmacopoeia? Dr Malcolm Dobbin	3.50-4.30pm	Outcome measurement and benchmarking update 2015: ePPOC: electronic Persistent Pain Outcomes Collaborative. Dr Chris Hayes
11.30-noon	Driving in the elderly – medications, cognitive function. Dr David Lussier	4.30-5pm	The Dragon of Pain The dungeon master The warrior The rogue The cleric The wizard Everyman/everywoman
Noon-12.30pm	Harm of medications to pain medicine. Dr Penny Briscoe	7pm	Faculty dinner
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch

