

PROGRAM

FRIDAY OCTOBER 19, 2018
12noon-1pm	Registration and lunch
1-3pm	Session 1: Faculty update
1-1.15pm	Chair: Dr Matthew Bryant Opening address Associate Professor Brendan Moore and Dr Timmy Chan
1.15-1.30pm	Welcome to country
1.30-2pm	FPM/Strategic plan update Dr Meredith Craigie, FPM Dean
2-2.30pm	Overview of the last 10 years in Hong Kong Dr Steven Wong
2.30-3pm	Update on pain in UK / Nice Guidelines – Recommendations vs regulations for analysis Dr Stephen Ward
3-3.30pm	Afternoon tea
3.30-5pm	Session 2: Opioids Chair: Dr Mick Vagg
3.30-4pm	Opioid stewardship Dr Joann Rotherham
4-4.30pm	Hong Kong perspective, the use of medication & approach to use of opioids Professor Cheung Chi Wai
4.30-5pm	Slow-release opioids in acute pain Professor Stephan Schug
5-6.30pm	Welcome reception
SATURDAY OCTOBER 20, 2018
8-9am	Registration
9-10.30am	Session 3: New and novel agents in pain medicine Chair: Dr Paul Gray
9-9.30am	Update on cannabinoids, our position Professor Milton Cohen
9.30-10am	Next generation opioids Professor Maree Smith
10-10.30am	Rheumatoid arthritis, the new way? Associate Professor David Bossingham
10.30-11am	Morning tea
11am-12.30pm	Session 4: Spinal procedures in pain medicine Chair: Dr Clara Wong
11-11.30am	Analysis of the recent Dutch study. Amsterdam trial and outcomes. Interventional pain and the UK experience. Dr Stephen Ward

11.30am-12noon	Interventional pain medicine assessing the evidence Dr Diarmuid McCoy
12noon-12.30pm	Neuromodulation trends in Hong Kong Professor Cheung Chi Wai
SATURDAY OCTOBER 20, 2018 continued
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch
1.30-3pm	Session 5: First Nations people and pain Chair: Dr Matthew Bryant
1.30-2pm	Supporting cultural capability – an example from psychiatry Dr Jason Lee
2-2.30pm	The perspective of an Indigenous health consumer Ms Lara Pullin Gundungurra
2.30-3pm	The perspective of an Indigenous doctor Dr Raymond Blackman
3-3.30pm	Afternoon tea
3.30-5pm	Session 6: Indigenous health Chair: Dr Mark Wenitong
3.30-4pm	Why are doctors not referring their Indigenous patients to a pain clinic? Dr Matthew Bryant
4-4.30pm	Positive initiatives of social and economical endeavours Mr Michael Eather
4.30-5pm	ANZCA's Indigenous health strategy Dr Sean McManus and Dr Rodney Mitchell, ANZCA President
7-10.30pm	Conference Dinner – Salt House restaurant After dinner speaker: Mr Michael Eather
SUNDAY OCTOBER 21, 2018
8-9am	Registration
9-10.30am	Session 7: Interventional pain Chair: Dr Tony Ng
9-9.30am	Interventional pain forum Dr Mick Vagg
9.30-10am	Changing role of pain intervention in Hong Kong from xray to ultrasound Dr Chan Wing Sang
10-10.30am	Epidural injections – the good, the bad and the ugly Dr Stephen Ward
10.30-11am	Morning tea
11am-12.50pm	Session 8: Embracing the far horizons of personality and place Chair: Dr Jayne Berryman
11-11.30am	Training of Faculty of Pain Medicine in Hong Kong Dr Lim Huey Sing
11.30-12pm	Personality and pain Dr Khaldoon AlSae
12-12.30pm	Lessons from Tele-oncology Professor Sabe Sabesan
12.30-12.50am	Lessons learnt from early practice in rural area Dr Clifton Timmins
12.50-1.30pm	Closing of meeting. Lunch